

BIG PHARMA, BIG SECRETS
AND THE HUMAN COST OF SELLING SICKNESS

CAUSE OF DEATH: Unknown

Made over a ten-year period, this film follows Anniken Hoel as she embarks on an investigation of the pharmaceutical industry after her sister died suddenly while taking prescription neuroleptics. It is simultaneously a personal and investigation journey that begins in a small town in Norway and travels through Scandinavia, Europe and the United States.

Wednesday, March 28, 6:30pm to 9:00pm

@ Smith College, Stoddard G2, Northampton

Thursday, March 29, 6:00pm to 8:30pm

@ Advocates, 1881 Worcester Road, Framingham

Friday, March 30, 5:30pm to 8:00pm

@ RPX, 1 Osgood Street, Greenfield

Each screening will be followed by a Q&A led by the film's producer, Andrew Grant

Free & open to the public.

RSVP encouraged but not required to info@westernmassrlc.org.

Continuing Ed Credits requested for LCSWs and LMHCs.

Co-sponsored by the Western Mass RLC & Advocates

Coming all the way from Norway!